

TRI-M MUSIC HONOR SOCIETY

Tri-M Music Honor Society is a student organization for music students who excel in music, academics, and leadership. This international organization is affiliated with the Music Educators National Conference and is approved by the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Membership criterion: (NHS members do not need to verify academic eligibility)

- Members must be enrolled in at least one Honors level music class at the time of application.
- Members must maintain a 3.0 in all music classes.
- Members must have a 2.5 GPA the previous semester (at the time of application) and must maintain a 2.5 unweighted GPA each semester.
- Members must have two teacher recommendations outside the music department and the recommendation of at least one music teacher.
- Members must participate in a Tri-M recital or other recital, during the semester they join.
- Members must complete 10 hours of community service as designated by the chapter.

Information:

- Meetings of the Leon High School Tri-M Music Honor Society will occur twice each semester TBA
- Communication will be primarily through the website set up on leonperformingarts.org and e-mail.
- Tri-M dues are $10 and due with the membership application.
- If a student's application is denied, the $10 fee will be returned.
- Members will have access to a catalogue of Tri-M items and the chapter will place orders as needed.
- Graduation cords are $12 and available to graduating members in good standing with the chapter. Payment must be made at the time cords are ordered. The international color for music cords is pink.
- At the first regular meeting, (tba) new members will vote on a chapter constitution, by-laws, and members will elect the following officers:
 - President
 - Vice President
 - Secretary
 - Treasurer
 - Historian
- Read about the history of Tri-M and look at catalogue items on the MENC website
