Info About Placements

Canboulay and Bacchanal

- All vets have priority, if they commit to returning. This means vets can keep their current (2023-24) spot next year without re-auditioning.
- New members will be placed in each band by audition only.
- Alternates for spots in “full” sections will be considered upon a case-by-case basis and will require an audition.
- Auditions will occur in class with Dr. Justus during the week of May 14 – 17 and must be scheduled with Dr. Justus by Thursday, April 18.

Jouvert

- All vets have priority, if they commit to returning. This means vets can keep their current (2023-24) spot next year without re-auditioning.
- New members will be invited to participate if they have completed one year of the Lion Steel beginning band class or one year in the Raa advanced steel band.
- New members must accept the invitation by May 6 in order to secure a spot. Students who commit first will receive priority for their chosen voice.

Beginning Bands

- No audition required. No prior musical experience required.
